Social Development Hosts Information booth at Divali Nagar

The Ministry of Social Development and Family Services (MSDFS) is pleased to participate in the Divali Nagar from Tuesday November 7th to Saturday November 11th, 2023. During this time, the public will be able to interact with the MSDFS' staff members representing the various service delivery arms of the Ministry for information and education about its suite of grants and services.

Among other things, members of the public will be able to learn about several grants and services the Ministry provides, as well as enquire about counselling services, signing up for Direct Deposit, the new Life Certificate process through the New Life and Residential Form and obtain requirements for undergoing a means test or making an appeal.

The Ministry takes pride in continuing its partnership with the National Council for Indian Culture at the Divali Nagar, as it has been participating at the Nagar for a number of years, given that this event is the second largest in the country, visited by over 100,000 persons over its duration.

At this auspicious time of year, when the Hindu community celebrates light over darkness and good over evil; the MSDFS embraces the opportunity to foster stronger relations with Faith-based and non-governmental organisations to help, empower and transform the lives of the vulnerable in our society.

Be sure to visit the Ministry's Information booth in the main area of the Divali Nagar!
